Flight Safety Foundation–Aviation Week & Space Technology Distinguished Service Award

Purpose and Establishment of Award:

The Aviation Week & Space Technology Distinguished Service Award — the oldest of the Foundation’s awards — has been sponsored since 1949 by Aviation Week & Space Technology and is administered by the Foundation.

The award is presented for “distinguished service in achieving safer utilization of aircraft.” It was the brainchild of Jerry Lederer, the founder of Flight Safety Foundation and a pioneer in aviation safety, who saw a need for an award to honor the people and organizations responsible for major advances in aviation safety. The nominating deadline is March 9, 2012.

The Award will be presented at the Aviation Week NEXTGEN AHEAD Air Transportation Modernization Conference, which will be held April 23-25, 2012 in Washington, DC
