

Captain Endre Berntzen, Director Crew Training for Widerøes Flyveselskap AS

Captain Berntzen is a flying enthusiast and has been an instructor for more than 27 years. He has flown a wide variety of aircraft from gliders, to seaplanes to DHC-8.

His background is civilian and has held board positions at national and international levels. He has held a management position in training for the Past 12 years.

With a passion for training development and education he has extensive experience in project management, his last major project being a study in theory and practical training on Somatogravic Illusions.