

Aurélia Grignon, Partner, Soulez Larivière & Associés

Aurélia joined Soulez Larivière & Associés in 2007 immediately after she was admitted to the Paris Bar in 2007. She was made a partner in January 2016.

Since joining the firm, Aurélia has developed specialist expertise in criminal law cases for corporate clients in addition to aviation with a focus on issues associated with accidents and product liability litigation.

From 2008 to 2012 she worked alongside Daniel Soulez Larivière and Astrid Mignon Colombet on the Concorde crash, and regularly advises on complex issues in the aviation sector.

Aurélia has a solid understanding of the management of industrial disasters; she worked on the sinking of the Erika from 2007 to 2012 and often handles group litigation.
