

Captain Craig Heldebrandt, Director Safety & Flight Operations Technical Affairs, Airbus Americas.

Craig provides Technical, Functional and Operational Aeronautical Expertise to customer airlines, regulatory agencies, investigative safety organizations and industry safety/technical working groups to enhance, promote and support Airbus in the Americas.

Before joining Airbus he gained 37 years of air carrier experience working at US Airways and JetBlue Airways. Craig served as a Check airman at both carriers. At JetBlue Airways he served as an Assistant Chief Pilot, Airbus Fleet Captain and Director of Flight Standards.