

Ron Sims, Director, Technical Operations Safety, United Airlines

Ron spend eight years in the United States Air Force and is an Airframe & Powerplant certified technician by trade and has worked at United Airlines since 1988.

Operational leadership at United Airlines includes supervision of leading technicians in base and line maintenance, hub shift manager, maintenance control manager, line station manager and Regional Managing Director.

Ron is Co-chair of the Airlines for America Maintenance Safety Council. He is 'Silver' certificated on Lean Manufacturing Principles.