

Captain Peter Stein Esq., Director of Flight Operations, Johnson Controls

Peter Stein is a Member of the Board of Governors, Flight Safety Foundation, the world's leading aviation safety authority. Peter Stein has spoken before national and international audiences on a diverse range of aviation-related topics, including threat and error management, managing legal risks related to document management, building positive safety cultures, and developing critical thinking skills. Most recently, he was a presenter at the 2015 FSF International Air Safety Summit in Miami, Florida, a presenter at the ICAO RASG-PA safety conference in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, a keynote presenter and workshop facilitator at the 8th Global Humanitarian Aviation Conference in Madrid, Spain, and a two-time presenter and workshop facilitator for the Annual Nepal Aviation Safety Awareness Campaign in Kathmandu, Nepal. Additionally, Peter served on the FAA Pilot Fitness Aviation Rulemaking Committee in Washington, D.C.

He is a magna cum laude graduate of the John Marshall Law School in Chicago, Illinois, holds a BA from the University of Colorado, and has attended the University of Southern California, Aviation Safety School.

In addition to his 25+ years in aviation as a manager, safety officer, and pilot; 13,000 flight hours, and six turbojet type ratings, Mr. Stein has worked as a judicial staff attorney and practiced civil and criminal appellate law.