

Christine Zylowski, Flight Safety Delegate – Maintenance LOSA Project Manager, Air France

Christine has been in the aviation industry for 22 years and is an experienced aircraft maintenance professional. Her career has included a variety of roles including those of avionics engineering manager, maintenance schedule manager, A320 fleet deputy manager and Flight Safety ERC manager.

She has a Master's degree in Aircraft Maintenance Engineering and an Electronics & Electrical Engineering Higher Technical Diploma.

Today, as a Flight Safety Delegate and Maintenance LOSA Project manager, Christine is in charge of safety promotion programs and is actively involved in initiatives related to safety systemic analysis, safety issues investigations, bowtie risk modeling. She leads the maintenance LOSA program within Air France Industries.