

Captain Amit Singh, Fellow Royal Aeronautical Society, London

Senior management professional with 25 years of versatile experience in the civil aviation domain

Amit has flown over 12,000 hours on Boeing 777 and Airbus A320.

He has been associated with two successful start up airlines in India, namely IndiGo and AirAsia.

Currently flying the A320 on line in the middle east, Amit has held numerous posts including: Chief of Safety, AirAsia; Director Flight Operations, AirAsia; Chief Pilot Training, Interglobe Aviation Ltd. "IndiGo"; Captain Air India.

Amit is a Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical society, London. He has been speaking at various forums on the subject of Flight Crew Training and how to improve training standards in order to ensure safety and standards.