

Exhibitor

Booth 7

Safety Line is an innovative digital technology company, specialized in Big Data and Artificial Intelligence solutions for aviation. With a team of highly experienced Aviation Industry experts, Data Scientists and IT specialist, Safety Line is in a position to propose an extensive range of digital products able to match the world's issues challenges in air transport.

SafetyCube is the only SMS for airlines, airports, ANSPs and maintenance organizations that integrates every aspect of operational safety and compliance.

AeroBowtie is the only Risk Management Software specially designed for aviation and fully compliant with ICAO, FAA and EASA safety regulations.

OptiClimb is based on Machine Learning combined with Optimization and aims at reducing the fuel consumption through the use of flight data. After 2 years of R&D, it was applied to a fleet of Boeing 737 at Transavia France and demonstrated an average 6% reduction in the fuel used during climb.

AirsideWatch is using Radar Data to improve safety and efficiency for airports, acting in a similar manner as Waze, when traffic growth issues have become increasingly complex to manage.

Company Information

Safety Line

130 rue de Lourmel

Paris, 75015

France

Website: <http://www.safety-line.fr>