

Richard Gomez

Vice President of Global Product Development and Management
MedAire

Richard Gomez is Vice President, Aviation Solutions Worldwide for MedAire. He has 30 plus years of aviation experience including, crew member training, regulatory compliance, quality assurance, cabin crew management and above and below the wing operations. Richard joined MedAire in 2005 to lead its global aviation training platform. Today, he oversees MedAire's suite of products and services including aircraft to ground MedLink services, Crew Medical Training, Aircraft Medical Kits and medical services for crew while on duty. Richard is committed to safety and supports airlines around with the mission of continuous improvement.