

Low Theng Hui

Director

Asia Pacific, FlightAware

Theng Hui joined FlightAware in January 2017 as Director of Asia Pacific and is responsible for starting up and building FlightAware's business presence and brand awareness in Asia Pacific. Theng Hui brings extensive experience in aviation from airport ground-handling, air cargo, cold chain logistics to aviation data and data analytics and has held various leadership roles in sales management, business development and operations.